NATIONAL KNIGHTS OF THE
KU KLUX KLAN,
REALM OF OHIO

On May 22, 1973, a source who has provided reliable information in the past concerning Klan matters, provided the following information:

The Ohio National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan (NKKKK) held a rally at Loveland Park, outside Cincinnati, Ohio, on Saturday May 19, 1973. The rally was threatened with cancellation due to heavy rains throughout the day, but it was held from 8:30 PM until approximately 11:00 PM with about 75 people in attendance.

NATIONAL KNIGHTS OF THE

The NKKKK was granted a charter in Georgia in 1963 as a "patriotic, secret, social, and benevolent order." The NKKKK, a consolidation of various Klans in southern States, continues to be anti-Negro, anti-Jewish, anti-Catholic and anti-foreign born.

Preparations for the rally commenced at 2:00 PM that date. Those involved in the preparations were [redacted] and several people from the Loveland Park area. [redacted] Ohio NKKKK [redacted] from Lodi, Ohio, and [redacted] from the Akron, Ohio area. Preparations included stringing electrical wire for the public address system, sign painting and assembling the cross. During the preparations, [redacted] went to the airport to pick up the rally's guest speaker, JAMES R. VENABLE, Imperial Wizard, NKKKK.

The rally got under way at approximately 8:30 PM when the [redacted] of Alliance, Ohio, said the opening prayer and gave the pledge of allegiance to the flag. [redacted] then gave the first speech on the speakers platform, which was a twenty foot International flatbed truck. The speech explained the biblical laws concerning genetics, and the evils of the Ohio State lottery among other things.

The next speaker was [redacted] from Akron, Ohio, who used the name of [redacted] at this rally. [redacted] is the [redacted] for the Ohio NKKKK and he spoke about the importance of youth in the Klan. He blamed the problems of American youth in the schools for not properly educating the students and pushing white shame propaganda.

The following speaker was [redacted] Ohio NKKKK [redacted] spoke vehemently concerning the changes he has introduced into the Ohio Klan and the need to portray a new image of the Klan to the American people. [redacted] stated that the Ohio NKKKK is attempting to recruit women, youth, and Catholics to fill its ranks, and it is attempting to keep out the troublemakers, who want to burn a cross or tar and feather a black because he's black. [redacted] emphasized the need to screen out these potential troublemakers.

[redacted] from Columbus, Ohio, then gave a short speech and he was followed by the Imperial Wizard, JAMES R. VENABLE. VENABLE spoke about crooked politics, race mixing, and the "good old days" of the Klan. VENABLE also stated that new Klan members would be closely checked, since there are individuals "who will infiltrate and spy for a few dollars".

[redacted] from Akron, Ohio, was the final speaker and he gave a one minute rendition on socialism and ADOLF HITLER.

After the speeches, about 15 robed Klansmen and one woman assembled around the cross. They walked around the cross in a counter clockwise direction with every other person holding a red flare. The cross was then lit, burned, and the rally concluded.

Also present at the rally were representatives of the National States Rights Party (NSRP), [redacted] of the Cincinnati, Ohio area. They were distributing leaflets concerning white power.

NSRP

A source has described the NSRP as an anti-Negro, anti-Semitic, white racist political party composed of past members of klan-type organizations and other right-wing groups.

Attached from Cleveland Office advises that Agents of the Akron Resident Agency have seen known members of the National Knights of KKK on the same floor in the building which houses the Akron Resident Agency on two occasions in the very recent past. These individuals were challenged and left the area without incident. One individual was observed trying to conceal a 35 millimeter camera with telephoto lens. Two of the individuals observed were formerly associated with right-wing organizations which included in its membership two individuals who had been prosecuted for bombing matters. Cleveland Office advised that local law enforcement agencies and building security personnel have been notified and sources have been alerted. Text of Cleveland message has been relayed to all offices having any KKK activity advising them to be alert for such incidents. The United Klans of America, Inc., was chartered in 1961 in Georgia. Its aims and purposes are the promotion of Americanism, white supremacy and segregation of the races. It is the dominant Klan group in the South with headquarters at Tuscaloosa, Alabama, and is currently active in several states.

The United Klans of America, Inc., (UKA), Realm of Indiana, is subordinate to the parent organization, UKA, Inc., Tuscaloosa, Alabama. The UKA is not chartered in Indiana and is led by [REDACTED] [REDACTED] Its objectives are the promotion of Americanism, segregation of the races, and white supremacy.

There were several other persons present, but they did not participate in the discussion. Mr. Venable spoke to the board members but most of the afternoon was spent in visitation, and the meeting was adjourned so that those present could eat and prepare themselves for a Klan rally which was being held near Spartanburg, South Carolina, that evening.

The rally was held in an open field near the Peach Blossom Motel where [REDACTED] had arranged for those attending to stay at their own expense. Approximately 175 to 200 persons attended the Klan rally which featured a cross-burning and a major speech by Mr. Venable, who spoke for over an hour on Klan philosophy. [REDACTED] also spoke briefly and greatly impressed those in attendance. He is described as a white male in his early 30s, of Dutch descent, and very clean-cut looking.

[REDACTED] of the NKKKK, was also present and made a few brief remarks. Following the Klan rally, many of the out-of-town visitors got together and visited with one another at the Peach Blossom Motel.

[REDACTED] confidential source advised that during the first day of the meeting, which was aimed at achieving unity among Klan groups, there was a rift between [REDACTED] Indiana, a UKA officer, and Mr. Venable. [REDACTED] of Ohio seemed to be the mediator in this dispute which stemmed from [REDACTED] loss of his units to the NKKKK banner. The outcome of this whole dispute resulted in [REDACTED] Venable giving [REDACTED] $50 each for his State Klan operations.

NATIONAL KNIGHTS OF THE KU KLUX KLAN (NKKKK)

[redacted] confidential sources advised the national board meeting continued on Sunday, and [redacted] of Ohio presented a lengthy proposal for a national program to be drawn up and presented to the board at its next meeting on Labor Day at Stone Mountain.

[redacted] confidential source advised that during this meeting, it was learned that a man named [redacted] from North Carolina will also be placed on the national board to represent North Carolina. This source learned that [redacted] was formerly active in the United Klans of America, Inc., but had flunked the polygraph test. This man explained that he was flunked on the polygraph test at the order of [redacted] and seemed very much opposed to [redacted] of the UKA. [redacted] confidential source also learned that [redacted] is now dealing with [redacted] rather than through UKA [redacted]

[redacted] confidential sources advised that Mr. James Venable was made the permanent head of the national board and that there would be ten members, plus Venable, on the board.

[redacted] confidential source advised at the close of the meeting it was announced the UKA had scheduled their Imperial Klonvocation for the Labor Day weekend rather than the customary Thanksgiving weekend, and there was a great deal of dissatisfaction over this. James Venable publicly and repeatedly denounced [redacted] for his refusal to cooperate with the Klan and conservative groups.

One copy of the enclosure is being furnished by WFO locally to U. S. Secret Service, Washington, D. C. (WDC).

The informant referred to in the enclosure is [redacted]
[redacted] who furnished information to SA [redacted]

For the information of the Bureau and all offices, [redacted] advised that he had a letter from [redacted] bearing "The Crusader" letterhead and a copy of the Fall, 1973 (No. 1) issue of "The Crusader," both of which identify "The Crusader" as a publication of the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Post Office Box 1234, Denham Springs, Louisiana 70726. Significantly, the August, 1973 (No. 22) issue of "Attack!", tabloid newspaper published by the National Youth Alliance (NYA), extremist white youth organization at WDC, carries an item on Page 2 entitled "Sick Pic of the Month," reportedly a reprint of an "anti-white advertisement" appearing in the current issue of "Sepia," in which interested readers are advised to reply to "Black Products, Box 1234, Denham Springs, Louisiana 70726". The alleged "Sepia" advertisement offers a mail-order "complete African Atto course" to attain "Black Power" in a manual outlining a program of body building, self defense and fighting techniques for the price of $10.00.

A Xerox copy of the "Attack!" item, "Sick Pic of the Month," is enclosed for each the Bureau and New Orleans.

According to [redacted] the "African Atto" advertisement in "Sepia" was a scheme devised by [redacted] "to make money off the niggers." [redacted] allegedly furnished the advertisement to a number of publications which cater to the black population, and received a good response. He alleged that advertising which had cost him $800.00 returned $1600.00 in sales. [redacted] indicated that he had put together the "African Atto" course himself, and it included everything mentioned in the advertisement. The manual on "African Atto" sold for $10.00 per copy; however, [redacted] suggested that it was worth about $.25 per copy. Reportedly, [redacted] has stopped the advertisement at this time. The informant is convinced that there was no collusion between [redacted] of the NYA tabloid newspaper, "Attack!", with respect to the "Sick Pic of the Month" item appearing in the August, 1973 (No. 22) issue of "Attack!"

The above information was not included in the LHM, because [] could be identified as the source. All offices exercise care for the security of the informant in connection with investigation based upon this information or dissemination outside the Bureau.

According to [] had attempted to contact [] of the National Socialist White People's Party (NSWPP), formerly the American Nazi Party, who was last known to be residing and attending school in Richmond, Virginia, but had been unsuccessful. The informant furnished [] the address of [] Richmond.

The informant advised that [] had telephoned [] who were last known to be residing together in Silver Spring, Maryland, but [] reportedly advised [] that he and [] did not want to be associated with [] Klan venture or become involved in activities of the extreme right-wing movement. According to the informant [] was particularly miffed over the attitude of [] because he had run a free advertisement for their "White Legion Books" operation.

The above informant stated that [] had visited NSWPP Headquarters in Arlington, Virginia, and had seen [] there; however, NSWPP [] refused to meet with [] The informant said that [] was particularly interested in seeing former NSWPP [] but learned that [] is now on the West Coast.

[] further advised that [] had expressed interest in seeing [] upon their return from Europe. He also asked the informant for [] current address. The informant also arranged for [] of Springfield, Massachusetts while in New York City.

The informant revealed that [] discussion with [] of the NYA lasted from approximately 4:30 p.m. to midnight on 8/13/73; however, the source was not aware of the substance of the conversation between them. [] indicated to the source that he was interested in printing up a volume of [] from "Attack!", and showed interested in publishing [] entitled "Revolutionary Notes," which appeared in "Attack!" in the past, in a single volume. It is noted that "Revolutionary Notes" purported to instruct readers on the construction and use of simple explosives and incendiary devices and the techniques of urban guerrilla warfare.

The above source advised that he had put [] into contact with [] extremist white political and racial writer living in WDC, and [] had met with [] for lunch. [] According to [] agreed to do some writing for [] publication.

[REDACTED]
KNIGHTS OF THE KU KLUX KLAN
Post Office Box 1234
Danham Springs, Louisiana 70726

A confidential informant who has furnished reliable information in the past advised on August 14, 1973, that [REDACTED] an activist in the extreme right-wing movement who was formerly affiliated with the National Socialist White People's Party, currently was visiting the Washington, D. C. (WDC) area with [REDACTED]. The informant learned that [REDACTED] is editor of "The Crusader," a publication of the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Post Office Box 1234, Danham Springs, Louisiana 70726. The source was unable to state whether the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Danham Springs, Louisiana, is affiliated with any of the major Klan organizations.

The National Socialist White People's Party (NSWPP), also known as The American Nazi Party, American Nazis, and the George Lincoln Rockwell Party, was organized on February 26, 1956, at Arlington, Virginia, based upon the concept of an international "National Socialist" movement as espoused by the German Nazi Party headed by Adolph Hitler. The organization supports and follows the line of hatred against Negroes, Jews and communists through various propaganda media seeking a legitimate dominant political party in the United States and foreign countries.

[REDACTED]
KNIGHTS OF THE KU KLUX KLAN

The above informant disclosed that [REDACTED] apparently was traveling about the country contacting supporters of the extreme right-wing movement in order to promote "The Crusader," which informant believed to be entirely composed and published by [REDACTED]. He learned that [REDACTED] recently visited [REDACTED] Fields of the National States Rights Party and James R. Venable of the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Incorporated, in Georgia, and had a meeting with [REDACTED] National Youth Alliance while in the WDC area. According to the source, [REDACTED] planned to visit New York City following their visit in WDC.

A source has described the National States Rights Party as an anti-Negro, anti-Semitic, white racist political party composed of past members of klan-type organizations and other right-wing groups.

The National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc., (NKKKK) was granted a charter in Georgia in 1963 as a "patriotic, secret, social, and benevolent order." The NKKKK, a consolidation of various Klans in southern states, continues to be anti-Negro, anti-Jewish, anti-Catholic, and anti-foreign born.

The National Youth Alliance (NYA) is an organization originally formed from a nucleus of Youth for (George C.) Wallace supporters following the 1968 presidential election for the purpose of countering radical leftist and anarchist influences on the campuses of American colleges and universities. NYA currently is controlled by individuals who militantly promote white racialism and anti-Zionism and who suggest violent revolution ultimately as the means for implementing their racial and political ideas in America.

[REDACTED]
KNIGHTS OF THE KU KLUX KLAN

The informant mentioned above stated that [REDACTED] Klan organization intended to form the membership into dens, rather than klaverns, consisting of four, five or six individuals. According to information obtained by the source, the various den units will operate independently of the central Klan organization and will carry out extralegal activities without consultation beforehand or disclosure afterward. The informant noted the similarity between this plan and the concept of "leaderless resistance" or "phantom cells" currently circulating in the extreme right-wing movement.

In view of the information set forth in referenced airtel, regarding the scheme devised by [redacted] to make money based on his advertisement in "Nepis" magazine, WFO should promptly furnish this information in an LHM suitable for dissemination. The LHM should be properly paraphrased in order to protect the informant.

It is noted that the fact that both "The Crusader," described as a publication of the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan (KKKK) and Black Products have the same mailing address is apparently public source information and could be attributed to the public sources.
The knowledge of the scheme as furnished by the informant and comments [redacted] should be paraphrased.

For information of WFO, [redacted] was arrested 6/28/72 by the New Orleans Police Department and charged with theft by fraud and misrepresentation, with the victim of the complaint being listed as Governor George Wallace, Montgomery, Alabama. [redacted] two other white investigation revealed the individuals were soliciting funds for the

Knights of the Ku Klux Klan

Information furnished by New Orleans in FD-405 dated July, 1973, for the month of June, 1973, does not indicate the existence of the KKKK, Denham Springs, Louisiana. The only Klan organizations indicated as being active by New Orleans within the state are United Klans of America, Inc. (UKA), KKKK, the Original Knights of the Ku Klux Klan (OKKKK), and the Original Klan of America (OKA).

New Orleans should promptly advise whether the KKKK actually exists in your territory and/or whether this might be a unit or realm affiliated with one of the other Klan organizations.

If information is available through sources indicating [redacted] is in violation of Federal statutes investigated by other U. S. Government agencies, pertinent information should be promptly furnished to such agencies and the Bureau in form suitable for dissemination.

NOTE:

"Sepia," a magazine published about blacks apparently contains an advertisement concerning an African Atto course which can be obtained from Black Products, Box 1224, Denham Springs, Louisiana 70726. This supposedly is a mail-order course including a manual outlining a body-building program for self-defense and fighting technique. The African Atto course is sold for $10 and, according to [redacted] the manual costs about 25 cents per copy. Informant has said [redacted] uses this scheme "to make money off the niggers."

On 8/14/73, per Bureau instructions, [redacted] was reinterviewed concerning the electronic device which he referred to as a "bug" which was reported in referenced airtel of 7/30/73.

Source advised as follows:

The electronic device was approximately three inches in length by one inch in width, was gun metal gray in color. The top portion of the device was chrome colored with a microphone top. Protruding from the bottom of the device was a three foot wire. The wire did not appear to be attached to anything but the device. There was a screw on the side of the device which the source was told changed the frequencies.

The source advised that approximately seven or eight people observed the use of this electronic device. The individual in possession of the device went with another individual about 30 feet from the automobile owned by [redacted] car was equipped with an FM radio. The individual in possession of the electronic device had it in his pants pocket.

He and the other individual were speaking and their speech could be heard over the FM radio in [redacted] car.

The individual in possession of the device later told the source that he could adjust the device to three different frequencies and that an FM radio from channel 95 and up could be utilized to ~~hear~~ what was said. The individual told the source that he could listen to people up to one block away and indicated he paid $80 for the electronic device.

The source indicated that previous to this demonstration he was told by others that the device had been placed under a piece of paper inside the home of [redacted] and that others listened outside through the FM radio. This was a distance of approximately 20 - 30 yards. One individual, name unknown, stated that the owner of the device had bought it to bug his wife. Source did not know whether this individual was joking or not.

Source advised that the purpose of the demonstration was unknown to him, but he surmised that it was no more than a "show-off" technique. Source advised that he heard of no plans mentioned to utilize this electronic device by other members of the Klan.

Source also stated that it did not appear that [] wanted the device, and that [] did not mention any intention of purchasing it. Source advised that during the demonstration he observed outside, [] was not present. Source did not have any knowledge if [] knew the device was on his property.

NATIONAL KNIGHTS OF THE KU KLUX KLAN

Member of Subject Organization

On August 13, 1973, a confidential source who has provided reliable information in the past advised that the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan (NKKKK) held a rally at a community center known as the Wampler Ballroom, 1001 Shilo, Dayton, Ohio. Source advised that there were approximately six individuals present wearing robes and that about 35-40 persons assembled. Source advised that this number included a number of curious onlookers and noted that the meeting was covered by local television news personnel. These newsmen interviewed Ohio NKKKK [redacted] announced that he was a candidate for the office of Governor of Ohio. Klan-type merchandise was sold at the rally and in addition to [redacted] speakers included the Ohio NKKKK Kludd (Chaplain) who spoke on the Bible and a speech was also made by the Indiana Grand Dragon on White Christian America.

Source advised that there was no discussion of violence at this meeting and [redacted] was very disappointed in the turnout and the way the meeting went.

The National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc., (NKKKK) was granted a charter in Georgia in 1963 as a "patriotic, secret, social, and benevolent order". The NKKKK, a consolidation of various Klans in southern states, continues to be anti-Negro, anti-Jewish, anti-Catholic, and anti-foreign born.

The Bureau concurs with your procedure of orally advising [redacted] State of New York, Department of Correctional Services, regarding employees of that department who are members of the NKKKK at Pine Bush, New York, pursuant to his request.

You should continue to closely follow the recruiting activities of the NKKKK, particularly when it involves correctional officers. Continue to identify all members of the Pine Bush Klavern conducting preliminary investigations to determine whether they possess a propensity for violence and hence establishing whether a full investigation is warranted in accordance with Section 122 of the Manual of Instructions. Since correctional officers may be considered within the purview of law enforcement, their identities and adequate descriptions should be furnished the Bureau for indexing purposes. In each instance, comment whether appropriate state officials have been advised of their activity.

Section 122 also limits the information which can be furnished to the interested agency and requires advising the agency that the information cannot be utilized by it for any hearing purposes since the Bureau cannot produce witnesses to testify. This has been complied with and you should insure that you continue to do so, particularly since the dissemination is to be done orally.

Letter to New York
Re: National Knights of the
Ku Klux Klan (NKKKK)
157-168

Membership by correctional officers in the Klan is a very undesirable situation in view of their need to dispatch their duties without the prejudice preached by the Klan. It is recognized that the leader of the Klan at Pine Bush is a correctional officer and this explains how other correctional officers have become involved. Without jeopardizing source's position in the Klan, he should attempt to subtly discourage further recruitment of correctional officers.

NOTE:

New York advised that liaison has been established with an official of the State of New York Department of Correctional Services regarding the Klan membership of six correctional officers. This official desires to be kept advised of these officers' activities and any additional personnel who join, but, to protect the confidentiality of the information within his department, desires that it be done orally. New York advised that this request would be honored. Section 122, Manual of Instructions, sets out a procedure for advising a law enforcement agency of the extremist activity of its members by letter. Since oral rather than written communication has been requested by the involved agency and such will accomplish the same end, this procedure is being permitted. Section 122 sets specific limits as to confidentiality of information furnished to the agency and its not being the basis for any administrative hearing by the agency. New York letter indicates ~~it is~~ cognizant of these limitations and has advised the agency as to these restrictions. Section 122, Manual of Instructions, requires initiating investigation of individual members of extremist organizations who have demonstrated propensity for violence and such a determination necessitates a preliminary inquiry to determine same before a full investigation is conducted.

On August 14, 1973, a confidential source, who has provided reliable information in the past, advised that there was a closed meeting of the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Realm of Ohio, held at the home of [redacted] Fayetteville, Ohio, on August 4, 1973.

(NKKKK)

The National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc., (NKKKK), was granted a charter in Georgia in 1963 as a "patriotic, secret, social, and benevolent order". The NKKKK, a consolidation of various Klans in southern states, continues to be anti-Negro, anti-Jewish, anti-Catholic, and anti-foreign born.

The express purpose of this meeting was to initiate one new member and to make plans for an NKKKK rally to be held the next day, August 5, 1973, at the Hara Arena in Dayton, Ohio. Noted in attendance at this meeting were the following:

There were approximately four other unknown individuals in attendance. There was no initiation this evening because the new member failed to show for the meeting. During this meeting, [REDACTED] Supra, stated that the rally in Dayton the next day would make or break the Klan. He advised it was important to have a large turnout because he had rented the Hara Arena in Dayton for $500 plus the fact that radio, T. V. and newspapers had all been alerted to the rally and he did not want any bad publicity.

The same source advised that on August 5, 1973, the NKKKK held the rally at the Hara Arena, Dayton, Ohio. Attendance at the rally was very poor. Not more than 40 individuals were noted in attendance.

The following individuals were seen in attendance at the rally:

Many of those in attendance wore Klan robes. Speakers at this rally included [redacted] NKKKK, Realm of Ohio, [redacted] from Indiana, [redacted] Akron, Ohio, and [redacted] Akron, Ohio. The latter two individuals are reputed to be [redacted] for the NKKKK.

[redacted] of the State of Ohio, in the next election and spent his time talking about current problems such as drugs, crime and the fact that the centralized Government is presently too distant from the people.

[redacted] was more volatile in his speech and accused Negroes of being "inferior beings". [redacted] urged the white race to stand up and be noticed because the Negroes were trying to take over the country. Both [redacted] spoke along the same lines as [redacted]

The source advised he was of the opinion that [redacted] was very unhappy over the attendance figures. The source stated that Hara's Arena was equipped to seat around 1,000 individuals, and that since no more than 40 individuals attended the rally, it was a comical blow to the NKKKK as a whole and [redacted] in particular.

On August 20, 1973, [] Cleveland, Ohio, was contacted by Bureau Agents to ascertain if [] had any type of bugging equipment in his possession. [] was advised of the identities of the Agents, was advised of the reason for interview, and was advised of his Constitutional Rights as set forth in an "Interrogation; Advice of Rights" form, stated he understood his rights, and subsequently signed said form. [] advised that he had not committed any crime and he would gladly furnish any information to the FBI.

[] advised that he presently owns a wireless microphone, which he described as approximately three inches in length, one inch in width, with a black wire hanging from the bottom. He advised that by setting the microphone on one FM frequency, and by setting the FM radio in his auto on the identical frequency, the radio becomes a receiver. [] advised that the wireless microphone is not illegal and can be purchased at most electronic stores.

[] denied ever "bugging" anyone. He admitted though that on several occasions he had demonstrated how the device could be used as a "bugging" device. [] explained that he is a member of the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan (NKKKK). He said that he demonstrated the device to [] of Ohio, and other NKKKK members. He said he did this in an attempt to make the others think he is a "big" man. That is, to gain, the confidence of other Klan members and to gain entry into secret Klan meetings.

[] advised that [] expressed no interest in purchasing such devices, nor has he any intentions to ever use such devices to intercept communications.

CV 157-5031

[] advised that he would make the wireless microphone available to the FBI upon request.

On August 22, 1973, AUSA POTTS, NDO, Cleveland, Ohio, was advised of the results of current investigation. AUSA POTTS advised that it appears there is no Federal violation and that [] should be allowed to retain his microphone, but he should be cautioned not to use the device to intercept communications.

On same date [] was advised to be circumspect in his use of such devices, and was cautioned not to "bug" anyone. [] apologized for his actions and stated that he has no intentions to violate the law.

SEPTEMBER 1, 1973

Sources [] of the Atlanta Office advised as follows on September 2, 1973:

The annual rally of the NKKKK was held on Saturday evening, September 1, 1973, on the property of NKKKK Imperial Wizard James R. Venable at the foot of Stone Mountain, Georgia. Between 550 and 600 people, many of them young and curiosity seekers, were in attendance at the rally. The rally was opened with a prayer by []

After the opening prayer, James R. Venable got up and gave the principal speech. Venable said that the Klan stood by the American flag and was in the forefront of its defense. Venable called on all those present "to keep the blood lines pure" and urged the deportation of Negroes back to Africa. Venable stated he would be criticized for such a suggestion but he felt it was the only way to prevent the mongrelization of the white race.

After Venable finished his speech, a young couple wearing Klan robes later identified in the Sunday edition of the Atlanta Journal and Constitution, a daily paper published in Atlanta, Georgia, as [] of Duncan, South Carolina, and [] of Greenwood, South Carolina, mounted the speaker's platform and were married in a brief ceremony. This was, according to Klan leaders, the first wedding ever performed at the annual rally.

At about 9:00 p.m., while the Battle Hymn of the Republic played, a large 30 foot cross and two smaller 6 foot crosses were burnt. Approximately 80 robed Klansmen, including 15 women, circled the crosses as they burnt.

At the same time the crosses were being burnt, an effigy of a Negro was burned while several Klansmen shouted "burn Nigger burn". The Klansmen were later identified as being from South Carolina, and the incident so enraged Venable that he angrily told [] of the South Carolina Klan delegation, that if he could not control his people, not to bring them any more.

After the cross burning, speeches were made by Georgia NKKKK [redacted] several others. All gave speeches urging separation of the races in a strong united Klan.

The rally ended at 11:00 p.m. There were no incidences of violence even though the entire proceedings were observed by a crowd of between 50 and 60 Negroes who lived in a housing development adjacent to the rally site.

[redacted], a breakfast meeting was held [redacted] at Venable's residence. Again nothing was decided on [redacted] except to meet again in three months on Ohio. Ohio [redacted] will host this meeting.

KNIGHTS OF THE KU KLUX KLAN,
POST OFFICE BOX 1234,
DENHAM SPRINGS, LOUISIANA 70726

On August 14, 1973, a confidential informant who has furnished reliable information in the past advised that [redacted] an activist in the extreme right-wing movement who was formerly affiliated with the National Socialist White People's Party and the National Party, currently is editor of "The Crusader", a publication of the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Post Office Box 1234, Denham Springs, Louisiana 70726.

The National Party has been described by its [redacted] as a separate right-wing political organization, open to the public. The party opposes violence, believes in the Constitution of the United States, white supremacy, and separation of the races. Aims of the National Party are to be obtained through elected officials. The National Party has replaced the White Youth Alliance with many former White Youth Alliance members joining the National Party.

The White Youth Alliance has been publicly announced to be the youth group of the National Socialist White People's Party.

The National Socialist White People's Party, also known as the American Nazi Party, American Nazis, and the George Lincoln Rockwell Party, was organized on February 26, 1956, at Arlington, Virginia, based upon the concept of an international "National Socialist" movement as espoused by the German Nazi Party headed by Adolph Hitler. The organization supports and follows the line of hatred against Negroes, Jews and communists through various propaganda media seeking a legitimate dominant political party in the United States and foreign countries.

[redacted]

The source mentioned above learned on August 20, 1973, that [redacted] had been commissioned by [redacted] of the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Nashville, Tennessee, to publish "The Crusader" and that [redacted] reportedly had furnished [redacted] his mailing list of some 1500 names. The source also learned that James Venable of the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Incorporated, Stone Mountain, Georgia, had provided [redacted] his mailing list of some 2000 names, in order that [redacted] could solicit subscriptions to "The Crusader".

The National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Incorporated, (NKKKK) was granted a charter in Georgia in 1963 as a "patriotic, secret, social, and benevolent order". The NKKKK, a consolidation of various Klans in southern states, continues to be anti-Negro, anti-Jewish, anti-Catholic, and anti-foreign born.

On August 22, 1973, [redacted] confidential informant who has furnished reliable information in the past, provided a copy of the August, 1973, (Number 22) issue, of "Attack!", the tabloid newspaper published by the National Youth Alliance, Washington, D. C. On page two of this publication is an item captioned "Sick Pic of the Month", which shows an "anti-white advertisement" allegedly printed in the "current" issue of "Sepia" Magazine. This advertisement offers readers a manual of instruction for achieving "Black Power", utilizing techniques of "African Atto", for the price of $10.00. "Sepia" readers are invited to respond to "Black Products, Box 1234, Denham Springs, Louisiana 70726" for the "complete African Atto course".

The National Youth Alliance (NYA) is an organization originally formed from a nucleus of Youth For (George C.) Wallace supporters following the 1968 presidential election for the purpose of countering radical leftist and anarchist influences on the campuses of American colleges and universities. NYA currently is controlled by individuals who militantly promote white racialism and anti-Zionism and who suggest violent revolution ultimately as the means for implementing their racial and political ideas in America.

[REDACTED]

"Sepia" is a publication of Sepia Publishing Company, 1220 Harding Street, Fort Worth, Texas 76102. Its articles, pictures and advertisements appear to be directed at the black population, and it is maintained in the "Black Studies Section" of the public library in Washington, D. C. The August, 1973, issue of "Sepia" carries the "African Atto" advertisement described above.

[REDACTED] confidential informant referred to above advised on August 30, 1973, that the "African Atto" advertisement described above was placed in "Sepia" Magazine by [REDACTED] as a scheme to make money from blacks. Reportedly, the manual of instruction on "African Atto" techniques was put together by [REDACTED] and is virtually worthless. According to the informant, [REDACTED] gross sales considerably exceeded his advertising costs and complaints were negligible. The informant believes that [REDACTED] has stopped the advertisement in "Sepia" at this time.

Attached is a reproduction of the "African Atto" advertisement appearing in "Sepia", as reprinted in the WYA tabloid newspaper, "Attack!"

NATIONAL KNIGHTS OF THE KU KLUX KLAN
OF OHIO, INC., (NKKKK)

On October 8, 1964, [redacted] Secretary of State's Office, Columbus, State of Ohio, advised public records from this office indicate a charter was granted the NKKKK of Ohio on October 5, 1964, by the State of Ohio. The charter was filed under Certificate Number 10194, and the Corporation Number is 334111.

The purpose of the corporation is to operate as a realm organization within the State of Ohio and in accordance with the Constitution and laws of the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc., Atlanta, Georgia. Second, to promote patriotism toward the civil government, honorable peace among men and nations, love among ourselves, liberty, justice and patriotic association for the mutual benefit of all mankind.

On October 23, 1964, [redacted] State House, Secretary of State's Office, State of Ohio, advised that the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of Ohio, Inc.'s charter granted October 5, 1964, was revoked October 22, 1964, for the official reason that the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan organization was on the U.S. Attorney General's subversive list. [redacted] said the actual purpose for revocation of the charter was not because the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan is on the U.S. Attorney General's subversive list, but because it was felt the existence of a state granted charter would encourage the Klan to make the claim it was "state sanctioned" and, therefore, entirely legitimate.

In actuality, the Ku Klux Klan and not the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan has been designated by the U.S. Attorney General pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

On May 6, 1969, a confidential source of the Cincinnati FBI Office advised that the above Klan organization is practically non-existent in the southern area of Ohio. This source pointed out that [redacted] still holds his title as [redacted] however, this title currently is in name only since [redacted] has almost completely discontinued his association with the NKKKK.

On October 1, 1973, a confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, provided the following pertinent information pertaining to captioned event:

During the night of September 29, 1973, captioned event took place along Ohio Route 503, approximately one mile south of Lewisburg, Ohio. The main purpose for the above was to obtain publicity in Ohio for the NKKKK, and specifically to elaborate notoriety in the news media announcing that two individuals would be married under auspices of a Klan wedding. The two individuals who were married are identified as [redacted] about 43 years of age, who resides in a suburb of Columbus, Ohio, near Lockbourne Air Force Base, and who is employed as [redacted] [redacted] age 37, who resides in Columbus, specific address unknown, and who is employed as a [redacted]. Approximately 100 individuals were in attendance, which group consisted of Klan members, employees of the news media and curious onlookers. The ceremony took place on a farm near Lewisburg, Ohio, owner of the farm unknown. Naturally the wedding was the highlight of the Klan affairs.

A 20 foot tall wooden cross, soaked with kerosine was burned which could be sighted within one mile. [redacted] a reported minister from the Detroit, Michigan area, and who was formerly affiliated with the United Klans of America, Inc. (UKA), acted in capacity of chaplain and officiated in the wedding service.

Above source explained that [redacted] is identical to the [redacted] who was convicted within the past year in Federal Court in Michigan and charged [redacted] district. At the present time, [redacted] is awaiting sentencing for this conviction by the presiding Federal Judge.

UNITED KLANS OF AMERICA, INC.

The United Klans of America, Inc., was chartered in 1961 in Georgia. Its aims and purposes are the promotion of Americanism, white supremacy, and segregation of the races. It is the dominant Klan group in the South with headquarters at Tuscaloosa, Alabama, and is currently active in several states.

UNITED KLANS OF AMERICA (UKA)
SOUTHWESTERN OHIO AREA

On May 29, 1973, a source advised that the United Klans of America, Inc., (UKA) is active in the southwestern Ohio area and has no permanent headquarters. It is completely operated under authority of [REDACTED] [REDACTED] for the UKA in Ohio.

This group is affiliated with the parent organization, which has its national headquarters at Tuscaloosa, Alabama.

Individuals recognized in attendance were identified as [REDACTED] of Lodi, Ohio, who currently holds title as [REDACTED] of the Ohio Chapter of the NKKKK. Acting as Bridesmaid for the bride was [REDACTED] reportedly from Cleveland, Ohio. Of the approximate 100 persons in attendance, it is believed 30 to 40 were Klansmen with a number of them attired in their Klan robes and masks.

[REDACTED] formerly a member of the UKA, and who is employed by the [REDACTED] Dayton, Ohio, and who resides in the West Alexander, Ohio area, was also present and took credit for setting up the above event. Both [REDACTED] made statements to the effect that the Klan has changed. People used to think of them as vigilantic groups and night leaders, but actually they only believe in white brotherhood and not white supremacy.

No unusual incidents of any type took place during the above captioned event.

Jan M. Spitler, Sheriff, Preble County, Ohio, was alerted to this scheduled event on September 28, 1973.

[redacted]
[redacted] was reported by Source [redacted] as attending a meeting of the NKKKK at Spartanburg, South Carolina, on June 23-24, 1973, where he was identified as being [redacted] of the Bedford Forrest Ku Klux Klan (BFKKK) in Florida.

Source [redacted] advised on March 25, 1973, that [redacted] was identified as being with the NKKKK realm of Florida at the meeting on March 25-26, 1973, at Stone Mountain, Georgia.

The above sources advised that the above meetings are concerned with establishing one large klan organization from all the small klan groups in the United States.

On August 30, 1973, an interview with [redacted] Jacksonville, Florida, who also attended the above affairs and who was described as affiliated with the NKKKK, as well as being listed as the [redacted] of the BFKKK, according to Source [redacted] above, disclosed that [redacted] is "living on borrowed time" in view of his poor health due to [redacted] and his [redacted] drives [redacted] to various functions stating that [redacted] of the independent BFKKK which is inactive and has only two members, those being [redacted] was appointed [redacted] of the BFKKK [redacted] who has appointed [redacted] of the BFKKK. They hold no meetings and have been unsuccessful in trying to get members for either the NKKKK or BFKKK, according to [redacted] [redacted] stated there was no violence in the BFKKK nor was [redacted] a violent individual since he cannot get excited because of his poor health and as long as [redacted] has known [redacted] which has been for about three or four years, he has never heard [redacted] make any comment advocating violence.

Source [redacted] who is well acquainted with klan and extremist activities in Jacksonville, Florida, has advised during 1973 that [redacted] was active in the past in the BFKKK but that organization has been defunct for several years. [redacted] and in the many years that source has known [redacted] he has never advocated violence.

[REDACTED]

This source also advised that BFKKK exists only in the mind of [REDACTED] who has declared himself [REDACTED] of the BFKKK. [REDACTED] is not taken seriously by persons who know him in Jacksonville. Source [REDACTED] also advised that during the recent rally of the United Florida Ku Klux Klan (UFKKK) at Samsula, Florida, [REDACTED] passed out literature seeking recruits for the NKKKK and the BFKKK but the UFKKK members only laughed at them. According to this source, during September, 1973, the UFKKK at Jacksonville received a request for funds from [REDACTED] in which they indicated they needed help to launch the NKKKK and the BFKKK but the UFKKK membership refused to have anything to do with them and sent them nothing.

The UFKKK was organized in June, 1961, as a result of the consolidation of two other klan groups. Its objectives are to oppose integration and to fight communism.

RE:

NATIONAL KNIGHTS OF THE KU KLUX KLAN
REALM OF OHIO

Plenty of Seats, Few Sheets

By DAVID LYON
Daily News Staff Writer

Suppose they held a Ku Klux Klan rally and nobody came.

It just about happened here Sunday. Dale Reusch of Lodi, Ohio, state grand dragon for the National Knights of the KKK, had rented Wampler's Ballarena for his first Dayton-area rally.

Wampler's set out 984 seats for the occasion, but there were no more than 30 persons in the hall during speeches by Reusch, Indiana grand dragon William Chaney and two Klan chaplains.

REUSCH, WHO plans to run for governor next year in the Democratic primary, said the United States is living on borrowed time. Government is becoming more centralized and more distant from the people, crime and drug problems are increasing, and large corporations and foreign interests are becoming more influential.

"I give us three years," he said. "I'm here to try to awaken the people to save their country."

He indicated he will return to Dayton, perhaps in the fall.

He called for stiffer drug laws, "removing the handcuffs" from police, a strong stand against communism, a ceiling on political campaign expenditures, opposition to regional government and tougher immigration laws.

A NEWSMAN asked Reusch how he could hope to be elected governor, considering the Klan's image as an anti-black, anti-Catholic, anti-Jewish organization.

"The Klan is not anti-black, anti-Catholic, or anti-anything," Reusch responded. "We are pro-Christian Americanism. Today's Klan is looking for pure Americans to protect the interests of this nation."

Reusch's theme of moderation was lost on subsequent speakers. Chaney set the public address system humming with energetic defense of white supremacy. Klan Kludds (chaplains) Marvin Miller of Columbus and Joseph Rozma did likewise.

"This is a white man's country, and I feel it's time we reclaimed our own," Chaney declared. "It's time we stand up and fight for law and order."

Chaney called blacks "an inferior being, the lowest form of humanity," and Miller implied that the biblical "beasts of the field" was a reference to blacks.

RE: NATIONAL KNIGHTS OF THE KU KLUX KLAN
REALM OF OHIO

The following article appeared in "The Journal Herald," Dayton, Ohio on August 6, 1973:

KKK chief plans bid for governor

Dale Reusch is a 34-year-old auto worker who'd like to make John J. Gilligan a one-term governor.

Reusch, who said he just missed being elected Medina County sheriff last year, tried to drum up support yesterday during a Dayton rally of his chief followers, the Ku Klux Klan.

Reusch, the Klan's Ohio grand dragon for five years, plans to run in next year's Democratic primary if he can get the backing. The fact that the incumbent governor is a Democrat doesn't bother him.

"Gilligan is going to be a one-term governor, anyway, because he's disliked by the working people," Reusch said. "He's brought more taxes than any other governor, even Jimmy Rhodes."

Reusch says he'll also fight Cleveland businessman Howard Metzenbaum's Senate bid, as he did in 1970, because the millionaire doesn't hire union employees, despite his claims of concern for unions.

The head Klansman has worked at the Ford plant in Brook Park, a Cleveland suburb, for 16 years and has run unsuccessfully for union office. He lives in Lodi, about 35 miles south of Cleveland, where he used to have a farm.

Reusch says he wants to be governor to help clean up government at both the state and national levels. He says his platform will include opposition to gun controls and big central government and support for strong narcotics laws.

State officials "have got to realize they represent the working people, not just high corporations," he said.

Reusch was hoping yesterday to increase Klan membership as well as promote his own candidacy.

But the turnout disappointed him and he blamed "poor publicity by the news media."

He estimated 150 to 200 persons showed up at Wampler's Ballarena during the four-hour rally. Only about 25 were still there near the end.

So Reusch plans another Dayton area rally in the fall, that one out in the countryside.

NATIONAL KNIGHTS OF THE
KU KLUX KLAN

On December 1, 1973, a source, who has provided reliable information in the past, advised that National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan (NKKKK), Realm of Ohio, held a rally at the Holiday Inn, South Grove City, Ohio. The rally was sponsored by [redacted] Ohio NKKKK, and was organized by [redacted]. The evening's activities commenced at approximately 7:00 PM with a Klan wedding of a young couple. This was followed by a recruiting rally from 8:00 PM to 11:00 PM, and the evening was completed with an initiation ceremony.

KU KLUX KLAN, INC. (NKKKK)

The National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc., (NKKKK), was granted a charter in Georgia in 1963 as a "patriotic, secret, social and benevolent order." The NKKKK, a consolidation of various Klans in southern States, continues to be anti-Negro, anti-Jewish, anti-Catholic and anti-foreign born.

Source advised that approximately 60 people were in attendance, including 35 people from the Columbus and southern parts of Ohio, a dozen Klansmen from northeastern Ohio, and another dozen of undetermined origin.

Source stated that [redacted] picked the site of the Klan event, just outside the Columbus, Ohio area, because he wanted to avoid the Columbus police jurisdiction and the black population in the Columbus area.

Source advised that [] announced that the scheduled Imperial Board meeting with Imperial Wizard JAMES VENABLE and 10 other Grand Dragons had been cancelled because of the "fuel crisis," and [] has made no mention concerning its rescheduling.

Source stated that the Klan wedding ceremony was officiated by an individual named [] from Detroit, Michigan, who functions as an "Identity Minister" out of the Lansing, Michigan []. Another young couple who were initiated into the Klan after the rally were identified as [] residence unknown.

Source advised that prior to the evening's activities there occurred a confrontation between a group called the Workers Student Alliance and the Klan. This group was picketing outside the motel where the Klan activities were being held. Source stated that a short scuffle ensued which was halted by the local police and sheriffs. There were no arrests made, and no serious injuries to any participants. Source stated, however, that this incident did prompt [] to state that in the future he would have to tighten and arm his security forces with billyclubs, helmets and mace.

from SDS in June, 1969, by the then dominant Weatherman faction, but continued to use the name SDS and opened an office in Cambridge, Massachusetts. WSA aligned ideologically with the Progressive Labor Party (PLP) and, in February, 1971, moved to Chicago, Illinois, where it opened the SDS National Office at 1225 South Wabash Street.

STUDENTS FOR A DEMOCRATIC SOCIETY (SDS)

Students for a Democratic Society (SDS) was founded during June, 1962 at Port Huron, Michigan, and in the 1960s functioned as the leading New Left, campus-based student organization in the United States. From an initial posture of "participatory democracy," SDS moved to a radical-revolutionary position, with debate centering on how best to create a revolutionary youth movement. Internal factionalism produced a split during the SDS National Convention in June, 1969, which results in the following three (3) factions: Weatherman; Worker Student Alliance (WSA); and Revolutionary Youth Movement (RYM). The weatherman and RYM are no longer affiliated with SDS. The WSA continues to use the name SDS and maintains its national headquarters at the Progressive Labor Party Office (PLP), 139 Main Street, Cambridge, Massachusetts.

PROGRESSIVE LABOR PARTY (PLP)

The Progressive Labor Party (PLP) founded in 1965 by former members of the CPUSA, who assertedly followed a Chinese Communist line, is a revolutionary Marxist-Leninist organization dedicated to a dictatorship of the working class.

REALM OF OHIO

On November 28, 1973, a paid advertisement appeared on Page 2 of the "Columbus Dispatch", a daily evening newspaper of general circulation at Columbus, Ohio, which announced that there would be a public meeting of the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan (NKKKK) at the Holiday Inn South, Interstate Highway 71, and Stringtown Road, Grove City, Ohio. The advertisement stated that James R. Venable and ten Grand Dragons from other states would be in attendance and that there might also be a wedding. Speaking was announced to begin at 6:30 PM, but doors would be open from 12:00 Noon.

of the house, which included a prohibition against wearing of ceremonial robes outside of the meeting room and any activity which might infringe upon the movements, safety or comfort of other guests of the hotel. [redacted] advised he received assurances from [redacted] that all amenities would be observed.

On December 1, 1973, [redacted] advised that he had received advice from [redacted] that morning that the five rooms reserved for the night of December 1, 1973, would not be required.

On December 1, 1973, [redacted] was overheard by a Special Agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation while [redacted] was in the lobby of the Holiday Inn South. [redacted] identified himself to a reporter as the [redacted] of the Ohio Realm of the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan. [redacted] stated that he would be the only [redacted] present on that day since travel problems had motivated them to cancel plans to have James R. Venable and 10 Grand Dragons from other States present for the rally that day. [redacted] stated to the reporter that there would be a wedding, however, and that it would take place when the Minister arrived from the airport. While sitting in the lobby, [redacted] made a telephone call and his end of the conversation was clearly heard by all present in the hotel lobby.

[redacted] spoke to a [redacted] and inquired why [redacted] was not yet there. [redacted] inquired of the other party if he was nervous and then told him to come to the meeting whether he found his wife or not.

From Noon on December 1, 1973, until approximately 3:30 PM, no more than twenty persons were present in the meeting room at one time, while others visited the cocktail lounge and dining room and some stood outside in the parking lot. Many present wore white jackets with NKKKK emblems and affiliations and black ties with white letters "KKK" boldly affixed thereto. 1942 reporter that this would be the first wedding ceremony he had ever performed.

By approximately 5:00 PM, about 60 people were present in the meeting room when about 30 individuals appeared in the hotel driveway outside the lobby and began marching and chanting such slogans as "The Ku Klux Klan is the scum of the earth", and carried signs in protest of the Klan meeting inside. One, who appeared to be the leader of the protest group, and was known to a Special Agent of the FBI present, was [redacted] who carried a sign which read, "The P.L.P. says racism is the bosses' tool". Within a very few minutes the protesters encountered several of those attending the Klan meeting who were standing at a rear door from the meeting room to the parking lot. One of the protesters struck a middle age male from the Klan group with a heavy stick to which protest signs were affixed, and the man threw a punch at the attacker. Immediately, and before any injuries or property damage might occur, police officers of the Grove City, Ohio Police Department intervened and told Klansmen to return to their meeting room, and the protesters were told to remove themselves at once from the property. [redacted]

[redacted] personally assisted in the restraint of those from the Klan meeting and told them to return to the meeting room. No arrests were made and no injuries or property damage occurred.

At the outset, [] announced that James Venable and the other ten Grand Dragons could not attend the rally. He announced that when he reaches 1,000 signatures he will then endorse [] for Lieutenant Governor. This source advised that at approximately 6:00 PM a group of approximately 30 white males and females attempted to break into the closed meeting room and a scuffle ensued. A Special Agent of the FBI observed that during the Klan meeting from approximately 6:30 PM until 8:30 PM, six young people, representing the Columbus Young Socialist Alliance, passed out leaflets to people entering and leaving the hotel but no incidents occurred and the protestors had departed about two hours before the Klan meeting finally concluded. None of those present at the Klan meeting registered to remain at the hotel over night. A copy of the Young Socialist Alliance leaflet is attached.

YOUNG SOCIALIST ALLIANCE

As the youth organization of the Socialist Workers Party (SWP), the Young Socialist Alliance (YSA) serves as the main source of recruitment into that organization. RE:

NATIONAL KNIGHTS OF THE KU KLUX KLAN
REALM OF OHIO

Plenty of Seats, Few Sheets

By DAVID LYON
Daily News Staff Writer

Suppose they held a Ku Klux Klan rally and nobody came.

It just about happened here Sunday. Dale Reusch of Lodi, Ohio, state grand dragon for the National Knights of the KKK, had rented Wampler's Ballarena for his first Dayton-area rally.

Wampler's set out 984 seats for the occasion, but there were no more than 20 persons in the hall during speeches by Reusch, Indiana grand dragon William Chaney and two Klan chaplains.

REUSCH, WHO plans to run for governor next year in the Democratic primary, said the United States is living on borrowed time. Government is becoming more centralized and more distant from the people, crime and drug problems are increasing, and large corporations and foreign interests are becoming more influential.

"I give us three years," he said. "I'm here to try to awaken the people to save their country."

He indicated he will return to Dayton, perhaps in the fall.

He called for stiffer drug laws, "removing the handcuffs" from police, a strong stand against communism, a ceiling on political campaign expenditures, opposition to regional government and tougher immigration laws.

A NEWSMAN asked Reusch how he could hope to be elected governor, considering the klan's image as an anti-black, anti-Catholic, anti-Jewish organization.

"The Klan is not anti-black, anti-Catholic, or anti-anything," Reusch responded. "We are pro-Christian Americanism. Today's Klan is looking for pure Americans to protect the interests of this nation."

Reusch's theme of moderation was lost on subsequent speakers. Chaney set the public address system humming with energetic defense of white supremacy. Klan Kludds (chaplains) Marvin Miller of Columbus and Joseph Kozma did likewise.

"This is a white man's country, and I feel it's time we reclaimed our own," Chaney declared. "It's time we stand up and fight for law and order."

Chaney called blacks "an inferior being, the lowest form of humanity," and Miller implied that the biblical "beasts of the field" was a reference to blacks.

RE: NATIONAL KNIGHTS OF THE KU KLUX KLAN
REALM OF OHIO

The following article appeared in "The Journal Herald," Dayton, Ohio on August 6, 1973:

KKK chief plans bid for governor

Dale Reusch is a 34-year-old auto worker who'd like to make John J. Gilligan a one-term governor.

Reusch, who said he just missed being elected Medina County sheriff last year, tried to drum up support yesterday during a Dayton rally of his chief followers, the Ku Klux Klan.

Reusch, the Klan's Ohio grand dragon for five years, plans to run in next year's Democratic primary if he can get the backing. The fact that the incumbent governor is a Democrat doesn't bother him.

"Gilligan is going to be a one-term governor, anyway, because he's disliked by the working people," Reusch said. "He's brought more taxes than any other governor, even Jimmy Rhodes."

Reusch says he'll also fight Cleveland businessman Howard Metzenbaum's Senate bid, as he did in 1970, because the millionaire doesn't hire union employees, despite his claims of concern for unions.

The head Klansman has worked at the Ford plant in

Brook Park, a Cleveland suburb, for 16 years and has run unsuccessfully for union office. He lives in Lodi, about 35 miles south of Cleveland, where he used to have a farm.

Reusch says he wants to be governor to help clean up government at both the state and national levels. He says his platform will include opposition to gun controls and big central government and support for strong narcotics laws.

State officials "have got to realize they represent the working people, not just high corporations," he said.

Reusch was hoping yesterday to increase Klan membership as well as promote his own candidacy.

But the turnout disappointed him and he blamed "poor publicity by the news media."

He estimated 150 to 200 persons showed up at Wampler's Ballarena during the four-hour rally. Only about 25 were still there near the end.

So Reusch plans another Dayton area rally in the fall, that one out in the countryside.

YOUTHS PROTEST MEETING

KKK Group, Pickets Clash

By NED STOUT
Of The Dispatch Staff

A handful of Ku Klux Klan members clashed briefly Saturday evening with a small group of protestors outside a Klan rally at the Holiday Inn, 1301 Stringtown Rd., Grove City.

Grove City police, who called in all available men in anticipation of a disturbance, moved in speedily to break up the fight. The fray started as a KKK member attempted to enter an outside door into the rally meeting room as the 20 protestors paraded around the building.

POLICE ORDERED the pickets, believed to be Peoples Labor Party (PLP) members from the Ohio State University area, out of the parking lot and there was no further disturbance.

The most serious injury reported was to a KKK member who suffered a slight head laceration. One of the pickets struck him with the handle of anti-Klan placard during the scuffling.

After the PLP pickets wandered off into the night, several other young persons, who said they were representatives of the Columbus Young Socialist Alliance passed out handbills at the motel entrance, protesting the KKK meeting.

ABOUT NINE of the group filtered into the meeting room where they watched a KKK wedding ceremony and listened to a battery of speakers headed by Dale Reusch of Lodi, Ohio. Reusch, 34, is Grand Dragon of the Ohio Knights of the Ku Klux Klan. He said he is passing petitions in an effort to become the Democrat nominee for Ohio governor in 1974.

Before the speakers, who generally lambasted President Nixon, Governor Gilligan, most elected politicians, the UN, immigrants, the press and "the international bankers conspiracy, a Cleveland couple, wearing white KKK robes was married by a clergyman flown in from Detroit, especially for the ceremony.

A cross, outlined with red light bulbs, was the principal decoration as the Rev. Kenneth Jameson, 31, pastor of the Mountain Church of Jesus Christ the Savior, nervously conducted the service.

JAMESON, WHO later said it was the first wedding he had performed, had not earlier met the nuptial couple, Russell L. Chewning, 24, and Susan Kurtz, 23.

Jameson wore a black robe with the inscription, "Don't Tread on Me" embroidered on the chest. He said he is not a Klansman, "but we preach quite a bit of their doctrine."

A DOZEN Klansmen, in robes of red, white and green, formed a double line behind the couple during the ceremonies. Only one, briefly, wore a black mask over his face.

Reusch presented the couple with a Bible, signed by all the Klan leaders who had attended the rally of about 50 persons.

REUSCH SAID interest in the KKK is growing and while he would not give exact figures he estimated the Ohio membership at between 8,000 and 9,000.

Among those attending the rally was Marvin Miller, of Miller's Trailer Court, Sheppard Rd., Lockbourne, leader of the Central Ohio KKK.

Before the formalities, a tape recorder played "Dixie" and various KKK songs. In the rear on the room were tables with an array of Klan souvenirs, ash trays, belt buckles and wall plaques for sale.

Reusch warned his listeners that "the Commies have 18 million people scheduled to perish in the United States."

"WE'VE BEEN misrepresented by a bunch of cheap politicians who owe their allegiance to the United Nations even though they took their oaths to the United States," Reusch said.

"... We'll be lucky to have another presidential election, what with the man in Washington now a dictator."

He warned that the government still maintains "12 or 13 of the concentration camps they had for the Japanese in World War II" for future political dissenters.

A Holiday Inn spokesman said the motel management was not aware, when Miller first reserved the room, it would be used by the KKK. Miller, the spokesman said, merely told the reservation clerk he wanted the space

"for a political meeting." Only after an advertisement was published in mid-week for the rally, did Holiday know it, would host the Klan.

II. ACTIVITIES

A. Public Activities

The NKKKK Realm of Ohio, held a rally during the evening of May 19, 1973, at Loveland Park, Ohio.

CI 157-245

[] gave the main address of the evening. JAMES VENABLE, Imperial Wizard of the NKKKK, Stone Mountain, Georgia, also addressed those in attendance. [] spoke against the Congress of the United States, the present administration and the bussing problem. [] related that the Negroes are united and that the white people must unite for the preservation of the white race. VENABLE also condemned the present political scene and made several anti-Negro statements.

May 20, 1973).

On August 4, 1973, [] meeting of the NKKKK, Realm of Ohio was held at the [] Fayetteville, Ohio. The purpose of this meeting was to make plans for an NKKKK rally to be held the next day, August 5, 1973 at the Hara Arena in Dayton, Ohio. During this meeting, [] stated that the rally in Dayton the next day would make or break the Klan. He advised it was important to have a large turnout because he had rented the Hara Arena for $500 plus the fact that radio, television and newspapers had all been alerted to the rally and he did not want any bad publicity.

On August 5, 1973, the NKKKK held the above-mentioned rally at the Hara Arena, Dayton, Ohio. Attendance at the rally was poor; not more than 40 individuals were noted in attendance. Speakers at this rally included [] from Indiana [] in his speech announced he would run for Governor for the State of Ohio in the next election and spent his time talking about current problems such as drugs, crime, and the fact that the centralized government is presently too distant from the people. [] was more volatile in his speech and accused Negroes of being "inferior beings". It was a comical blow to the NKKKK as a whole and [] in particular because the Hara Arena was equipped to seat around 1,000 individuals and no more than 40 attended the rally.

On December 1, 1973, a rally was held at Holiday Inn, Grove City, Ohio.
